Lancashire

The Salamanca Corpus. Dialect Bibliographies by County: Lancashire

Last update 29TH DECEMBER 2010

The Salamanca Corpus. Dialect Bibliographies by County: Lancashire

Last update 29th December 2010

___________. 1996. “The second person singular interrogative in the traditional vernacular of the Bolton Metropolitan area.” In J. R Black, et al. (eds.)

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>Author(s)</th>
<th>Title and Reference</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2006b</td>
<td>____________</td>
<td>“Phonological resistance and innovation in the North-West of England.” English Today 22/2. 55-61</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>————</td>
<td>Wilkinson, Th. T.</td>
<td>On the Lancashire dialect more especially as relating to the Blackburn hundred. Unpublished MS, held at the Chetham’s Library.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1940</td>
<td>Wrigley, A.</td>
<td>Old Lancashire Words and Folk Sayings (Pariss of Saddleworth), Geo. Stalybridge: Whittaker and Sons.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>